'Ahmedabad Custom House Agents' Association' (ACHAA) will now be known as 'Ahmedabad Custom Brokers' Association' (ACBA) as per the nomenclature changed in Customs Brokers Licensing Regulations – 2013. New name and registration have been also granted under the Societies Registration Act, 1660 and under the Bombay Public Trust Act, 1950.

The announcement of new name has been made by Mr. Devang Joshi – the then President ACHAA, during the Annual General Meeting of the association. He expressed gratitude to each one of managing committee members for their contribution and support during his tenure. He thanked Mr Samir J. Shah for his guidance. He also thanked all the members of association for support extended during his tenure.

According to Mr. Kartik A. Pancholi, the then Chairman of Board ACHAA, appreciated efforts in interest of fraternity and association done by the office bearers and all other committee members under the leadership of Mr. Joshi.

Mr. Parag Baraiya the then Hon. Secretary ACHAA, announced the first new managing committee formed under ACBA as: Mr. Samir Shah (Chairman), Mr. Kartik Pancholi (President), Mr. Devendra Thakker (Vice President), Dr. Darshan Mashroo ( Hon. Secretary), Mr. Chinmay Kothari (Hon. Jt. Secretary), Mr. Viral Zaveri (Treasurer), and Mr. Rakesh Oza (Managing Committee Member).

The new managing committee has taken the charge of association immediately after the AGM and the first meeting of Ahmedabad Customs Brokers' Association (ACBA) conducted under the chairmanship of Mr. Samir J. Shah. The AGM of ACHAA and first meeting of ACBA were followed by a networking get-together which was attended by members of association.
