ACHAA becomes ACBA; new Committee takes over

'Ahmedabad Custom House Agents' Association' (ACHAA) will now be known as 'Ahmedabad Custom Brokers Association' (ACBA) as per the nomenclature changed in Customs Brokers Licensing Regulations - 2013. The new name and registration have also been granted under the Societies Registration Act, 1960 and under the Bombay Public Trust Act, 1950.

The announcement of the new name was made by Mr Devang Joshi, then President of ACHAA, during the Annual General Meeting of the Association. He expressed his gratitude to each one of the Managing Committee members for their contribution and support during his tenure. He thanked Mr Samir J. Shah for his guidance and also thanked all the members of the Association for their support.

Mr Kartik A. Pancholi, then Chairman of Board of ACHAA, appreciated the efforts taken in the interest of the fraternity and the Association by the office-bearers and all other Committee members under the leadership of Mr Joshi.

Mr Parag Baraiya, then Honorary Secretary of ACHAA, announced the first new Managing Committee formed under ACBA, as shown in the box.

The new Managing Committee took charge immediately after the AGM and the first meeting of Ahmedabad Customs Brokers Association (ACBA) was conducted under the Chairmanship of Mr Samir J. Shah.

The AGM of ACHAA and the first meeting of ACBA were followed by a networking get-together which was attended by members of the Association, said a release.
